

2023-2024 Edgewood ACIP
 Edgewood Elementary School

Achievement

Critical Initiative

Increase small group instruction, independent practice opportunities, and tiered intervention practices. Teachers will review student math scores at designated student data meetings

Objective:

Edgewood Elementary Students in grades K-3 will improve their reading and math proficiency based on the STAR Reading and Math Assessment

Activity

Increase small group instruction, independent prac

Person responsible: School reading and math coach

Launch Date: 08/09/2023

Required Resource(s):

Financial Resource:
Other Resource:

Source of Funding: PD funds as needed

Activity Measure(s)

Increase small group instruction, independent practice opportunities, and tiered intervention practices. Teachers will review student math scores at designated student data meetings

Benchmark(s)

Benchmark: Date:

2023-2024 Edgewood ACIP

Edgewood Elementary School

Academic Achievement

Objective

Edgewood Elementary Students in grades K-3 will improve their reading and math proficiency based on the STAR Reading and Math Assessment

Critical Initiative

Increase small group instruction, independent practice opportunities, and tiered intervention practices. Teachers will review student math scores at designated student data meetings

Start Date: 08/09/2023

End Date: 05/24/2024

Key Measures

STAR Benchmark Assessments and CBMs

Edgewood Elementary School

Vision

Homewood City Schools is a student-centered system enriched by tradition, vision, and compassionate spirit. Our mission is ensured by dedicated, exemplary staff; a supportive, involved community; an appreciation for diversity; and an uncompromising commitment to excellence.

Mission

The mission of Homewood City Schools is to educate and empower all students to maximize their unique potential.

Beliefs

- Diversity enriches our community and enhances learning
- High expectations foster excellence
- Innovation creates pathways to engagement, exploration, and relevance
- A culture of support rooted in relationships maximizes potential

Academic Achievement

Objectives

- Edgewood Elementary Students in grades K-3 will improve their reading and math proficiency based on the STAR Reading and Math Assessment

Critical Initiatives

- Increase small group instruction, independent practice opportunities, and tiered intervention practices. Teachers will review student math scores at designated student data meetings

Key Measures

- STAR Benchmark Assessments and CBMs

2023-2024 Edgewood ACIP

Edgewood Elementary School

Mission

The mission of Homewood City Schools is to educate and empower all students to maximize their unique potential.

Resource(s)

Total Financial Resources:

Source of Funding: PD funds as needed

Other

Critical Initiative

Increase small group instruction, independent practice opportunities, and tiered intervention practices. Teachers will review student math scores at designated student data meetings

Key Measures

- STAR Benchmark Assessments and CBMs

Intended Outcome(s)

- Increase STAR reading and math data by 2%.

Objective

Edgewood Elementary Students in grades K-3 will improve their reading and math proficiency based on the STAR Reading and Math Assessment

Vision

Homewood City Schools is a student-centered system enriched by tradition, vision, and compassionate spirit. Our mission is ensured by dedicated, exemplary staff; a supportive, involved community; an appreciation for diversity; and an uncompromising commitment to excellence.